

I'm a Jack-o'-lantern

Learn to recognise ordinal numbers to five with this Halloween number song.

The tune is by Tom Glazer and arranged by Dany Rosevear.

Verse 1. Draw a smile, put forefinger atop head. 2. Hold up five spread fingers, place heel of hand on the other with fingers closed, the gate, wag one finger, hand to cheek. 3. Raise two fingers, hands make a pointed hat. Raise three fingers then put hands on hips and shrug shoulders. 4. Raise four fingers, make them run, raise five fingers, make a funny face. 5. Blow finger top, hands to eyes, make witches hat move from side to side.

I'm a Jack - o' - lan - tern with a great big grin, I'm a Jack - o' - lan - tern with a can - dle in. When "Whooh!" went the wind and out went the light, And a - way rode the witch on Hal - low - een night!

I'm a Jack-o'-lantern with a great big grin.

I'm a Jack-o'-lantern with a candle in.

Five Jack-o'-lanterns were sitting on the gate.

The first one said, "Oh, my it's getting late."

The second one said, "There are witches in the air."

The third one said, "But we don't care!"

The fourth one said, "Let's run, and run, and run."

The fifth one said, "I'm ready for some fun."

Then "Whoosh!" went the wind and out went the light,

And away rode the witches on Halloween night!
