

Scarecrow

Fun out in the ripening fields.

This song is based on the poem of the same name by James S. Tippett.

A rhyme set to music by Dany Rosevear.

1. Stand with hands outstretched and rocking like a seesaw. 2. Put hand to forehead. 3. Flap arms. 4. Wave arms and stamp feet.

G C G C G D7 G

Scare - crow, scare - crow, What do you know? "I guard the corn and watch it grow!

G C G D7 G C D7 G

If the birds fly in to eat, I wave my arms and stamp my feet!"

Scarecrow, scarecrow!

What do you know?

"I guard the corn and watch it grow!

If the birds fly in to eat,

I wave my arms

And stamp/stomp my feet!"
