

Little leaves of Autumn

A seasonal rhyme and hand play.

Music by Dany Rosevear.

- 1. Make branches with arms and fingers.
- 2. Make fingers flutter downwards.
- 3. Put forefinger to lips.
- 4. Place closed hands to cheek.
- 5. Blow and wave arms.
- 6. Swish fingers upwards.

The musical score is written on three staves in G major (one sharp) and 6/8 time. The melody consists of eighth and quarter notes, with some rests. Chords are indicated by letters G, D7, and C above the staff. The lyrics are written below the notes, with hyphens indicating syllables across notes. The first staff contains the first line of the rhyme, the second staff the second line, and the third staff the third line. The final note of the third staff is a half note G, which is held over the end of the lyrics.

In Au - tumn when the trees are brown, The lit - tle leaves _ come tumb - ling down; They do not make the slight - est sound But lie so quiet - ly on the ground, Un - til the wind comes puff - ing by And blows them off to - wards _ the sky.

In Autumn when the trees are brown,
The little leaves come tumbling down;
They do not make the slightest sound
But lie so quietly on the ground,
Until the wind comes puffing by
And blows them off towards the sky.
