

Little lamps are burning bright

Diwali, also known as the Festival of Lights, is a Hindu holiday celebration in India and around the world every year. Important traditions on this holiday the festival also celebrates the royal homecoming of Rama (along with Sita, Lakshmana, and Hanuman) to the city of Ayodhya linked with Shvas return are lighting oil lamps and decorating homes with lights. Many people also enjoy firecrackers and sweets as they celebrate both goodness and light!

The image shows two staves of musical notation in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The first staff contains the first line of the song: 'Lit - tle lamps are burn - ing bright, Burn - ing bright, burn - ing bright,'. The second staff contains the second line: 'Lit - tle lamps are burn - ing bright, It's Di - wa - li!'. Chord symbols G, D7, and G are placed above the notes to indicate the accompaniment.

Little lamps are burning bright,
Burning bright, burning bright.
Little lamps are burning bright.

It's Diwali.

See them lighting up the night,
Up the night, up the night.

See them lighting up the night.

It's Diwali
