

A skip in our feet

*A song for those special happy days when you just want to keep dancing.
I saw a little lad skip into school very recently, it was Christmas week and he knew it was likely to be a good day.*

smile on our face, — Meet the hap - pi - est kids in the land.

We've got a skip in our feet,
We've got a clap in our hands,
We've got a smile on our face,
Meet the happiest kids in the land!

We've got a knock in our knees,
We've got a tickle in our toes,
We've got a wiggle in our hips,
Join the dance where anything goes!

We've got sweet love in our heart,
We've got our family and friends,
Come in and get ready for fun,
It's birthday time once again!
*It's Christmas time once again /
Thanksgiving again! / Diwali time once again! /
It's Hanukkah time once again! etc.!*
