

I see the moon

A lullaby by Meredith Willson that we once sung as children. It was released in 1953. There is also a nursery rhyme that has the same title that appears in English as early as 1784 in a work entitled Gammer Gurton's Garland, 'I see the moon, and the moon sees me, God bless the moon, and God bless me!' Find out more at:

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/I\_See\_the\_Moon.

I see the moon, the moon sees me, Down through the leaves of the old oak tree Please let the light that shines on me, Shine on the one I love.

I see the moon and the moon sees me,
Down through the leaves of the old oak tree,
Please let the light that shines on me,
Shine on the one I love.

Over the mountain, over the sea,
Back where my heart is longing to be,
Please let the light that shines on me,
Shine on the one I love.

I hear the lark, the lark hears me,
Singing from the leaves of the old oak tree,
Oh, let the lark that sings to me,
Sing to the one I love.