

It's snowing, it's blowing

This song has been adapted from Desmond MacMahon's 'Infant Joy'; it would also work well for a clothing or colour topic.

It's snowing, it's blowing, But I am safe from harm. For
I shall wear a yellow pair of gloves to keep me warm.

The image shows two staves of musical notation in G major (one sharp) and 2/4 time. The first staff contains the melody for the first line of the song, with lyrics underneath. The second staff contains the melody for the second line, also with lyrics underneath. Chord symbols (D, G, A7) are placed above the notes to indicate the accompaniment.

It's snowing, it's blowing,
But I am safe from harm.
For I shall wear a yellow pair
Of gloves to keep me warm.

It's snowing, it's blowing,
But I am safe from harm.
For I shall wear a red wool hat
To keep me dry and warm.

It's snowing, it's blowing,
But I am safe from harm.
For I shall wear a bright blue pair
Of boots to keep me warm.

It's snowing, it's blowing,
The birds are safe from harm;
For if they're cold, their wings they'll fold
To keep themselves quite warm.
