

Mister Turkey's tail

The tale of a turkey and estive hand play.

Set to music by Dany Rosevear.

1. Fan out fingers of hand. Move hand from side to side. 2. Raise forearm, fashion hand into turkey head. Squeeze wrist. Open and close fingers. 3. Stretch neck, move head from side to side. Make two fingers dance. 4. Rub tummy.

Mis - ter Tur - key's tail is big and wide He swings it when — he walks. His neck is long, his chin is red, He gob - bles when — he talks. Mis - ter Tur - key is so tall and proud, He dan - ces on — his feet, And on each Thanks - giv - ing Day He's some - thing good — to eat!

The musical score is written in G major and 6/8 time. It consists of four staves of music. The first staff has chords G, G, C, G. The second staff has chords D7, G, D7, G. The third staff has chords G, G, C, G. The fourth staff has chords D7, G, D7, G. The lyrics are written below the notes, with dashes indicating where the melody is held for a longer duration.

Mister Turkey's tail is big and wide,
He swings it when he walks.
His neck is long, his chin is red,
He gobbles when he talks.
Mister Turkey is so tall and proud,
He dances on his feet,
And on each Thanksgiving Day
He's something good to eat!

