

When a hand reaches out

*Make a first step with a smile or a kind word and try not to judge others.
A tolerance of those who appear to be different from yourself will soon reveal many common thoughts, traits and beliefs.*

There is so much to learn from a warm conversation and camaraderie. And most of all it is a way to develop happiness and peace between communities.

Words and music by Dany Rosevear.

When a hand rea - ches out in warmth and love, The sun shines bright in the blue sky a - bove, When a hand rea - ches out from the oth - er side, Hold it tight, make a friend, a - cross the div - ide. Sing, sha - lom, sing sal - am, sing pa - ce, sing peace; Sing it soft, sing it loud, So hope will nev - er cease.

When a hand reaches out in warmth and love,
The sun shines bright in the blue sky above,
When a hand reaches out from the other side,
Hold it tight, make a friend, across the divide.

Chorus x2

Sing shalom, sing salaam,
Sing peace, sing peace;
Sing it soft, sing it loud,
So hope will never cease.

When a hand reaches out with a gracious heart,
The dark clouds of strife will drift apart.
When a hand reaches out from the other side,
Hold it tight, make a friend, across the divide.
