

Good morning Mister Snowman

Here one day, gone the next.

With more than a nod to the 'The dingle dangle scarecrow'.

Words and music by Dany Rosevear. Illustration by Isaac.

- 1. Wave and point.
- 2 Hands across chest, form sun.
- 3. Hand to ear.
- 4. Move body in a wobbly way. The same with hands above head.
- 5. With hands pointing downwards wiggle fingers.

Good morn - ing Mis - ter Snow - man And how are you to - day? I'm ve - ry well thank - you, 'Til the sun comes out to play! Then you will hear me say,
"I'm a slush - y, slop - py snow - man With a sog - gy, flop - py hat; I will drip and drop like this, And drip and drop like that."

Good morning Mister Snowman,
And how are you today?
I'm very well thank you,
'Til the sun comes out to play,
Then you will hear me say,
"I'm a slushy, sloppy snowman
With a soggy, floppy hat;
I will drip and drop like this,
And drip and drop like that."

