Ringing Christmas bells

A Christmas poem in rondo form. Traditionally peals of bells are heard on Christmas Day to celelebrate the birth of the baby Jesus. This could be played with different kinds of bells or bell-like percussion, one for the chorus and two diiferent kinds for the verses. The poem is anonymous. Music by Dany Rosevear.

Chorus:
Ring the bells, ring the bells,
This is Christmas Day.
Ring the bells, ring the bells,
This is Christmas Day.

One is for the shining star,
That pointed out the way,
Two is for the manger,
Three is for the hay Chorus

Four is for the shepherds,
Who saw the angel light,
Five is for the little baby,
Born this happy night. Chorus
