

Who gives a hoot?

A number number hand play. Count up, count down.

A number rhyme by Dany Rosevear.

- 1. Raise one finger at a time.*
- 2. Place thumb and forefinger round eyes, use forefingers to make beak.*
- 3. As before.*
- 4. Throw out hands, cross hands at wrists and flap.*
- 5. Starting with eight fingers up fold one finger down at a time.*
- 6. Flap hands, fingers run. 7. As before.*
- 8. Shake head and form sun with hands.*
- 9. Put hand to mouth, make fingers scoot.*

One hoot, two hoots three hoots, four,
Round eyes, sharp beak and mice grabbing claws.
Five hoots, six hoots, seven hoots, eight,
Who gives a hoot? It's owl out late.
Too-whit too-whoo!

Eight hoots, seven hoots, six hoots, five,
Owl's out hunting, run for your lives!
Four hoots, three hoots, two hoots, one,
We don't give a hoot for day has come!
Too-whit too-whoo!
Oh dear!! RUN!
