

Five little leprechauns

A subtraction rhyme

A leprechaun is a little bearded man from Irish folklore; dressed in a green coat he is reknowned for his mischeivous ways.

Find out more at: <https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Leprechaun>

Music notation for 'Five little leprechauns' in 3/4 time, G major. The lyrics are: Five little leprechauns knocked at my door, One chased a rainbow, then there were four.

Chords: D, D, G, D, G, D, A7, D.

Five little leprechauns knocked at my door,
One chased a rainbow, then there were four,

Four little leprechauns, oh so wee,
One picked a shamrock, then there were three.

Three little leprechauns hiding in my shoe,
One found a toadstool, then there were two.

Two little leprechauns dancing in the sun,
One went in search of gold, then there was one.

One little leprechaun on the run,
He shined his shoe buckles and sat in the sun.