

Set the little dove free

The way the world should be.

There are some wonderful musicians who through technical expertise and sound engineering have produced some magnificent global performances that bring us together in a way only music can; one of the foremost of these are Playing for change / Peace through music.

Equally Zoom (and other platforms) and Covid lockdowns have allowed people from many regions to gather together and sing, lifting spirits through some dark days. This is a humble homage to those folk.

Intro: La-la-la-la, la-la-la-la-la,

La-la-la, la-la-la, la-la-la-la!

La-la-la, la-la-la, la!

Chorus: One world, one song, one big family,

Singing our hearts out in sweet harmony,

Not a border or fence that we can see.

Together as one, the way it should be,

Together as one, the way it should be.

For we each share the stars, we each share the moon,

We each share the blue sky on a warm afternoon.

We'll raise up our voices, when peace is the prize,

For truth, hope and happiness, so little dove can fly. x2

Chorus

And we all love the flowers, we all love the trees,

We all love the ladybugs, the crickets and bees,

And we need one another wherever we be,

To bring love and joyfulness to our big family. x2

Chorus

We'll sing songs that move mountains, songs that move
hearts,

And songs that will shape us so we each play our part;

As the river runs on, racing down to the sea,

Come with us, sing with us, walk with us, talk with us,

Let peace come a-calling, set the little dove free! x2
