Holi is an ancient Hindu Spring festival of colour. It celebrates the love of Radha and Krishna and signifies the triumph of good over evil. It is celebrated as a day for spreading happiness and love.

This traditional rhyme has been adapted and arranged by Dany Rosevear.

The musical score is written in 4/4 time and consists of three staves. The first staff contains the first line of the song: 'Dum, dum, dum, Ho - li has come, Red, yel - low, green, All the col - ours fall on me.' The second staff contains the second line: 'Run, run, run, a - way you run. Here comes the pow - der paint and spray - ing has be - gun.' The third staff contains the final line: 'Dum, dum, dum, Ho - li has come. I love Ho - li, It is such great fun!' Chords are indicated above the notes: C, G7, C, G7, C, F, G7, C, G7, C, F, G7, C, G7, C.

Dum, dum, dum,
Holi has come,
Red, yellow, green,
All the colours fall on me.
Run, run, run away you run.
Here comes the powder paint
And spraying has begun.
Dum, dum, dum,
Holi has come.
I love Holi,
It is such great fun!
