

Dumplins

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

A question / answer and number game from Jamaica.
Count to ten and back again.

Musical notation for the song 'Dumplins' in G major, 4/4 time. The melody consists of two staves of music. The first staff starts with a G chord, followed by a sequence of eighth and sixteenth notes. The lyrics are: "Ja - ney, you see no - bo - dy pass here?" "No me friend." "Well, one of me dum - plins gone." "Don't tell me so!" The second staff continues with a G chord, followed by a sequence of eighth and sixteenth notes. The lyrics are: "One of me dum - plins gone!" The music ends with a final G chord.

“Janey, you see nobody pass here?” “No me friend.”
“Well, one of me dumplins’ gone! “Don’t tell me so!”
“One of me dumplins’ gone!”

“Well, two of me dumplins’ gone!” Continue to ten

“Janey, you see nobody pass here?” “No me friend.”
“Well, ten of me dumplins’ gone!” “Don’t tell me so!”
“Nine of me dumplins’ gone!” “Don’t tell me so!”
“Eight of me dumplins’ gone!” “Don’t tell me so!”
“Seven of me dumplins’ gone!” “Don’t tell me so!”
“Six of me dumplins’ gone!” “Don’t tell me so!”
“Five of me dumplins’ gone!” “Don’t tell me so!”
“Four of me dumplins’ gone!” “Don’t tell me so!”
“Three of me dumplins’ gone!” “Don’t tell me so!”
“Two of me dumplins’ gone!” “Don’t tell me so!”
“One of me dumplins’ goooone!”