

Easter bunny's basket

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

How exciting on Easter Sunday to go hunting for eggs!

This can be played as a hand play as below or an action game.

From 'The Golden Book of Little Verses' published in 1953. Poem by Miriam Clark Potter. Music by Dany Rosevear.

1. Make a rabbit hand with two finger ears. Walk fingers. Cup one hand on the other to make a basket. Rub tummy. 2. Walk fingers. Finger to lips, hand to forehead then look around. Pick up eggs and place in hand.

The musical score is written on three staves in G major, 2/4 time. The lyrics are: 'Eas - ter Bun - ny comes at night, On gen - tle tip - toe feet, He holds a bas - ket, safe and tight, Of some - thing good to eat; He walks a - round the house and grounds On ve - ry qui - et legs And In the morn - ing, all a - round, Are... Eggs! Eggs! Eggs!'

Easter Bunny comes at night,
On gentle tip-toe feet,
He holds a basket, safe and tight,
Of something good to eat;
He walks around the house and grounds
On very quiet legs
And in the morning, all around,
Are - Eggs! Eggs! Eggs!
