

Goodness, gracious, glory, glory be!

Do we stay inside when the rain falls down? No way! Rainboots, wellies, gumshoes or whatever you call them on and out we go. The weather is there to be enjoyed OUTSIDE! Encourage children to adapt the words to the day's weather and to suggest other suitable activities.

Words and music by Dany Rosevear.

Use you fingers and palms to make suitable sounds on the floor or table.

The musical score is written on a treble clef staff in 6/8 time. It consists of three lines of music with lyrics underneath. The first line starts with a C chord and ends with a G7 chord. The second line starts with a C chord. The third line has chords F, C, G7, C, F, C, G7, and C. The lyrics are: "Wat - cha gon - na do when the rain comes down, The rain comes down, the rain comes down? Gon - na stamp in the pud - dles when the rain comes down, Well, good - ness, gra - cious, glor - y, glor - y be! Good - ness, gra - cious, glor - y, glor - y be!"

Watcha gonna do when the rain comes down,
The rain comes down, the rain comes down,
Gonna stamp/stomp in the puddles when the rain comes down,
Well, goodness, gracious, glory, glory be! x2

Watcha gonna do when the sun shines down,
The sun shines down, the sun shines down,
Gonna swim in the sea when the sun shines down,
Well, goodness, gracious, glory, glory be! x2

Watcha gonna do when the wind blows strong,
The wind blows strong, the wind blows strong,
Gonna fly my kite when the wind blows strong,
Well, goodness, gracious, glory, glory be! x2

Watcha gonna do when the snow floats down,
The snow floats down, the snow floats down,
Gonna build a big snowman when the snow floats down,
Well, goodness, gracious, glory, glory be! x2
