

My Easter bonnet

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

There is nothing lovelier than a genuine smile!

A song for the Easter parade.

From the classic classroom song book for young children 'Singing fun' published in 1962. Written by Helen Wasmandorff and Lucille F. Wood. Arranged by Dany Rosevear.

I think I'll wear for East - ter A bon - net made of lace. But most of all I think I'll wear a smile up - on my face. A smile up - on your face? A smile up - on your face? I think I'll like that bet - ter than your bon - net made of lace.

I think I'll wear for Easter
A bonnet made of lace.
But most of all I think I'll wear
A smile upon my face.
A smile upon your face?
A smile upon your face?
I think I'll like that better
Than your bonnet made of lace.
