A simple end of school day transition song; come together, say thank you, get ready to go and a chanted reminder. Each preschool is different so feel free to adapt the words to your own circumstances or age of your children.

Words by Dany Rosevear, music set to a familiar tune.

1. Come together in a circle. 2. Leader points to her eyes and self. 3. Clap twice, stamp twice, do both three times. 4. Wave high and low, draw smile on face, give a high five to a classmate or helper. 5. Chant: Stamp for each words of first line. Tap a finger for each reminder.

Music notation for the song, showing three staves of music with lyrics underneath. The music is in G major, 4/4 time. Chords indicated are D, G, A7, and D.

Lyrics:

- Come to - geth - er, we've had fun, Thank - you friends and ev - 'ry - one.
- Join our cir - cle, eyes on me, Clap, clap, stamp, stamp, one, two, three!
- Give a lit - tle, wave, high then low, Big smiles, high fives, read - y to go.

Come together, we've had fun,
Thank you friends and everyone,
Join our circle, eyes on me,
Clap, clap, stamp, stamp, one, two, three,
Give a little wave, high then low,
Big smiles, high fives, ready to go.

Chant: Salt, mustard vinegar, pepper;
Books, bags, boots, coats, gloves and letters!
