

Knock at the door

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

A classic baby play.

This is the rhyme my parents and grandparents played with me as I did with my own children when they were young. My grandmother had Irish parents from Cork.

Knock forehead gently. Touch top of cheeks. Push up nose. Finger on lips. Squeeze one cheek. Squeeze other cheek. Jiggle chin.

Knock at the door,
Peep in.
Lift the latch,
Walk in,
Take a chair,
Sit there,
And say, 'How do you do today?'