

Let me call you sweetheart

A song for all ages including the very youngest.

Words and music by Leo Friedman and Beth Slater Whitson 1910.

There are many wonderful recordings out there by well known singers but I hope my version with a gentle guitar accompaniment is suited to the nursery for dancing with a parent either in their arms or swaying holding hands; alternatively it can be sung as a lullaby.

I'm in love with you. — I am dream - ing, Dear, of you, day, by day, — Dream - ing when the skies are blue, when they're grey, — When the sil - v'ry moon - light gleams, Still I wan - der on in dreams, In a land of love, it seems, Just with you. —

I am dreaming, Dear, of you, day by day;
Dreaming when the skies are blue, when they're grey;
When the silv'ry moonlight gleams, still I wander on in dreams,
In a land of love, it seems, just with you.

Let me call you 'Sweetheart' I'm in love with you;
Let me hear you whisper that you love me too.
Keep the lovelight glowing in your eyes so true.
Let me call you 'Sweetheart' I'm in love with you.

Longing for you all the while, more and more;
Longing for the sunny smile, I adore.
Birds are singing far and near, roses blooming ev'rywhere,
You, alone, my heart can cheer you, just you.
