

I do like to be beside the seaside

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

A popular British music hall song in the hey day of fashionable Victorian seaside holidays, redolent of bathing machines and swimming costumes that covered the body.

Words and music by John A. Glover-Kind 1907.

Oh! I do like to be be-side the sea-side, — I do like to be be-side the sea. — I do like to stroll up - on the Prom, Prom, Prom, Where the brass bands play, Tid - de - ly - om - pom - pom! So just let me be be - side the sea - side, —

I'll be be - side my - self with glee; — For there's lots of girls be - sides I should like to be be - side, Be - side the sea - side, be - side the sea. —

Oh! I do like to be beside the seaside,
I do like to be beside the sea.
I do like to stroll upon the
Prom, Prom, Prom,
Where the brass bands play
Tiddely-om-pom-pom!
So just let me be beside the seaside,
I'll be beside myself with glee;
For there's lots of girls besides
I should like to be beside,
Beside the seaside, beside the sea.
