

Sun on the water

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

Let the sun into your heart and soul as summer approaches. Every so often in Spring there are days that give you a hint of the summer to come. The last few mornings at swimming the sun has shone brightly on the surface of the pool where such delights and time to reflect set off a song. Words and music by Dany Rosevear.

Sun on the wa - ter, rip - ples and dan - ces, Sun on the but - ter - cup, shines just like gold; Sun on the chil - dren, big smiles and laugh - ter, Sum - mer is a - com - in', so I've been told.

Sun on the water, ripples and dances,
Sun on the buttercup, shines just like gold;
Sun on the children, big smiles and laughter,
Summer is a-comin', so I've been told. x2

Rain on the rooftops, pitters and patters,
Rain in the guttering, splashes and swirls,
Off down the rivers, out in the oceans,
All the lovely rainbows give hope to the world. x2

Sun in each kind heart, ripples and dances,
Sun in each little step gives joy to us all;
Wind in our wings brings big smiles and laughter,
Fly and chase each rainbow, feel love in your soul. x2
