

There's a fox in a box

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

This song by Barbara Ireson has been adapted many times in my classrooms and is there for adapting to your particular topic; the tune too has changed over the years, many apologies Barbara.

Make up new rhymes and of course have lots of fun while doing so.

The lyrics are: "There's a fox in a box in my lit - tle bed, My lit - tle bed, my lit - tle bed, There's a fox in a box in my lit - tle bed, And there is - n't much room for me."

There's a fox in a box in my little bed,
My little bed, my little bed,
There's a fox in a box in my little bed,
And there isn't much room for me.

There's a snake in a cake in my little bed...
There's a giraffe in a scarf in my little bed...
There's a rat in a hat in my little bed...
There's a goat in a coat in my little bed...
There's a stag in a bag in my little bed...
