Get jumping.

Adapted from a poem by Kate Greenaway with added verses and music by Arthur C. Edwards. From 'Music for living' book 2 published by Silver Burdett in 1956.

Last verse adapted by Dany Rosevear.

An opportunity to make BIG jumps.

Jump, jump, jump! Jump o - ver the moon;

Jump All of the morn - ing, And jump all of the noon.

Jump, jump, jump!
Jump over the moon;
Jump all of the morning,
And jump all of the noon.

Jump, jump, jump!
Jump over a star;
Choose one that is twinkling,
And not so very far.

Jump, jump, jump!
Jump over the sea;
Jump over the dry land,
And jump over to me.

Jump, jump, jump!
Jump far, far away;
What wonderful wonders
We'll see every day.
