

Sunflower yellow

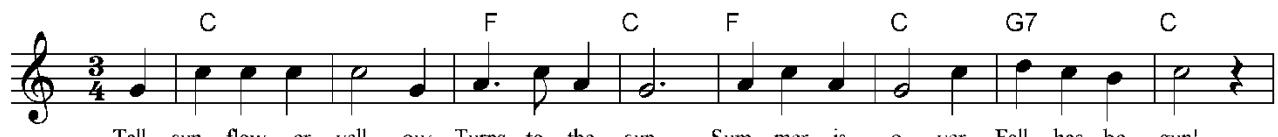

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

An Autumn handplay and ode to the sunflower's bounty.

Words and music by Dany Rosevear.

Verse 1. Stand tall and place hands to the side of your face. Move faces together towards the 'sun'.

2. Scatter seeds from hand. Make squirrel head and bushy tail with hands crossed at the wrist. Squirrel head pretends to eat.

3/4 time, treble clef. Chords: C, F, C, F, C, G7, C. The lyrics are: Tall sun-flow-er yell-ow Turns to the sun, Sum-mer is o-ver, Fall has be-gun!

3/4 time, treble clef. Chords: C, F, C, F, C, G7, C. The lyrics are: Scat-ter your seeds All o-ver the ground; Come lit-tle squirrels there's food to be found!

Tall sunflower yellow
Turns to the sun,
Summer is over,
Fall has begun!

Scatter your seeds
All over the ground.
Come little squirrels,
There's food to be found!
