

The stars are hiding

A lovely little hand play by Malvina Reynold.

I came across it on Marty Lane's delightful CD 'Brighten the day' where she sings it as a medley.

Verse 1. Line 1.-3. Open and close hands and then pull to chest. x3. 4. Draw a large circle with hands and wiggle fingers outwards. 5.-6. As before.

Verse 2. Line 1.-3. Open and close hands and then put hands to cheek. x3. 4. Draw a large circle with hands and wiggle fingers behind back. 5.-6. As before.

The stars are hid-ing all the day, The sun is shin-ing them a-way, Orion and the Lion.

The stars are hiding all the day,
The stars are hiding all the day,
The stars are hiding all the day,
The sun is shining them away.
Orion and the Lion,
They are hiding all the day.

The stars are shining all the night,
The stars are shining all the night,
The stars are shining all the night,
The sun is shining out of sight.
Orion and the Lion,
They are shining all the night.
