

The sky bears had a pillow fight

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

A song to sing in wonder and amazement as light dawns; save especially for the first snowfall of the year. Second verse by Dany Rosevear; make up your own verses to include other snowy day activities.

Oh, it snowed last night, It snowed last night, The sky bears had a pil - low fight, They tore up ev - ry cloud in sight, And tossed down all the feath - ers white. Oh, it snowed last night, It snowed last night, Yes, it snowed last night!

Oh, it snowed last night,
It snowed last night,
The sky bears had a pillow fight,
They tore up every cloud in sight,
And tossed down all the feathers white.
Oh, it snowed last night,
It snowed last night,
Yes, it snowed last night!

Oh, it snowed last night,
It snowed last night,
We woke to see the garden white,
And ran outside in such delight,
Quite ready for a snowball fight.
Oh, it snowed last night,
It snowed last night,
Yes, it snowed last night!
