

The wind blew East

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

A traditional sea song from the Bahamas.

A rhythmical song of opposites; East and West, fast and slow, high and low, night and day.

It can be easily adapted for the seasons: Autumn: Fall leaves, tumbleweed; Halloween: ghosts, witches; Winter: snowflakes, hail and sleet; Spring: little birds, showers; Summer: thunderclouds, sunshine.

Oh, the wind blew east, Whoooo!— Oh, the wind blew west, Whoooo!— Oh, the wind blew 'The Sun - shine' Right down to town. Oh, the wind blew 'The Sun - shine' Right down to town. Oh, the wind blew 'The Sun - shine' Right down to town.

Oh, the wind blew east, Whoooooh!
Oh, the wind blew west, Whoooooh!
Oh, the wind blew 'The Sunshine'
Right down to town,
Oh, the wind blew 'The Sunshine'
Right down to town.
Oh, the wind blew 'The Sunshine'
Right down to town,

Oh, the wind blew east, Whoooooh!
Oh, the wind blew west, Whoooooh!
Oh, the wind blew 'The Starlight'
Right down to town,
Oh, the wind blew 'The Starlight'
Right down to town.
Oh, the wind blew 'The Starlight'
Right down to town.
