

Hail, rain, sleet and snow

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

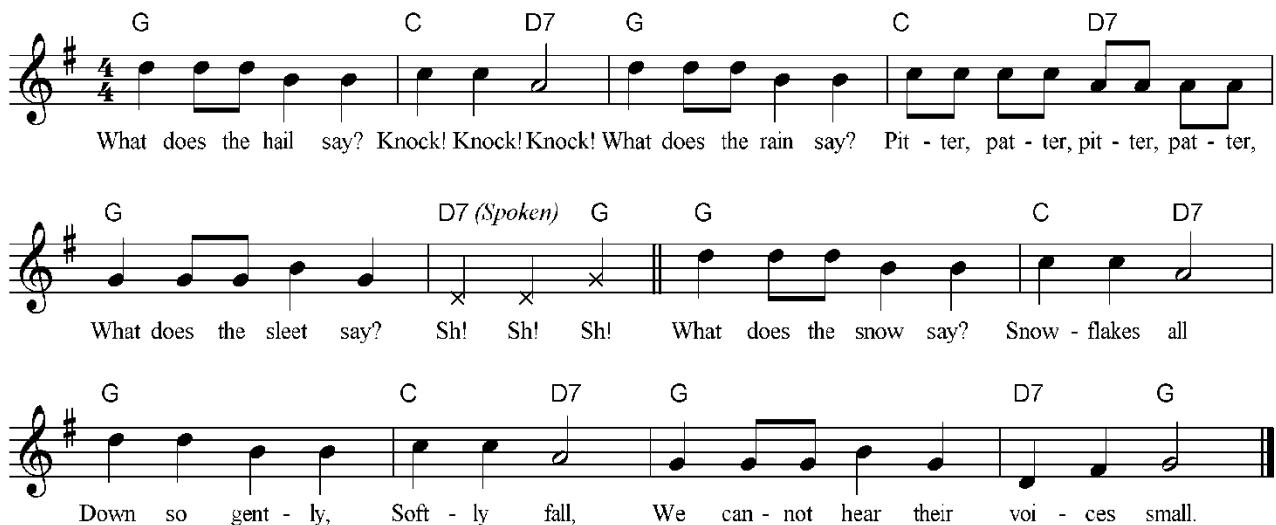

Identify different kinds of precipitation by their sound.

By Mary Slade from 'Music for the nursery school' by Linda Chesterman, published in 1935. Arranged by Dany Rosevear.

Verse 1. Knock on the floor with knuckles. Tap floor with finger tips.

Brush palms together.

Verse 2. Raise hands and gently lower them to rest in the lap.

What does the hail say? Knock! Knock! Knock! What does the rain say? Pit - ter, pat - ter, pit - ter, pat - ter,
What does the sleet say? Sh! Sh! Sh! Sh! What does the snow say? Snow - flakes all
Down so gent - ly, Soft - ly fall, We can - not hear their voi - ces small.

What does the hail say?
Knock! Knock! Knock!
What does the rain say?
Pitter patter, pitter patter!
What does the sleet say?
Sh! Sh! Sh!

What does the snow say?
Snowflakes all,
Down so gently,
Softly fall,
We cannot hear their voices small.
