

Here comes the snow

<https://rivgrofsong.uk/>

A movement song for a snowy day.

From 'Music for the nursery school' published in 1935 by Linda Chesterman.

Arrangement and adaptation by Dany Rosevear.

1. Children walk about on tiptoe holding out their hands and looking up at the falling snowflakes. 2. Pick up snowballs and throw them in free time to the music. 3. Stamp vigorously, heel and toe, wipe feet backward and forwards.

Soft and sweetly

Here comes the snow! Here comes the snow! Soft and light, cold and white, Here comes the snow!

Lightly and crisply

Make some snow - balls! Make some snow - balls! Throw them here! Throw them there! Throw them quick - ly

Firmly and well accented ev - 'ry - where! Stamp the snow off! Wipe your feet! See your boots are clean and neat.

Here comes the snow!
Here come the snow!
Soft and light, cold and white,
Here come the snow!

Make some snowballs!
Make some snowballs!
Throw them here! Throw them there!
Throw them quickly everywhere!

Stamp the snow off!
Wipe your feet!
See your boots are clean and neat.
