

Where the waters meet

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

It's time to talk. Communication is at the heart of any civilized society, without the spoken word there can be no understanding of each others needs, thoughts and wishes. A failure to communicate adequately can lead to missed opportunities and a hostile environment. Take heed to the many wise words written and spoken by those who came before us. Words, arrangement and set to music by Dany Rosevear.

At a place where the waters meet
We'll gather there together,
At a place where the waters meet,
Whispered dreams of old are spun.

Listen to wise words of hope
Where the ancients have spoken,
Turn aside from fools and knaves reaching for the dark;
Listen to your heart, listen to your heart,
As you follow life's pathways, listen to your heart.

At a place where the waters meet
We'll gather there together,
At a place where the waters meet,
Whispered dreams of old are spun, Come follow the sun.

Wonder at bright streams of light
Where the ancients have spoken,
Turn aside from fools and knaves reaching for the dark;
Listen to your heart, listen to your heart,
As you follow life's pathways, listen to your heart.

At a place where the waters meet
We'll gather there together,
At a place where the waters meet,
*Whispered dreams of old are spun, Come follow the sun,
We'll talk until we're done.*

Listen to wise words of peace
Where the ancients have spoken,
Turn aside from fools and knaves reaching for the dark;
Listen to your heart, listen to your heart,
As you follow life's pathways, listen to your heart.
