

Frogs in yonder pond

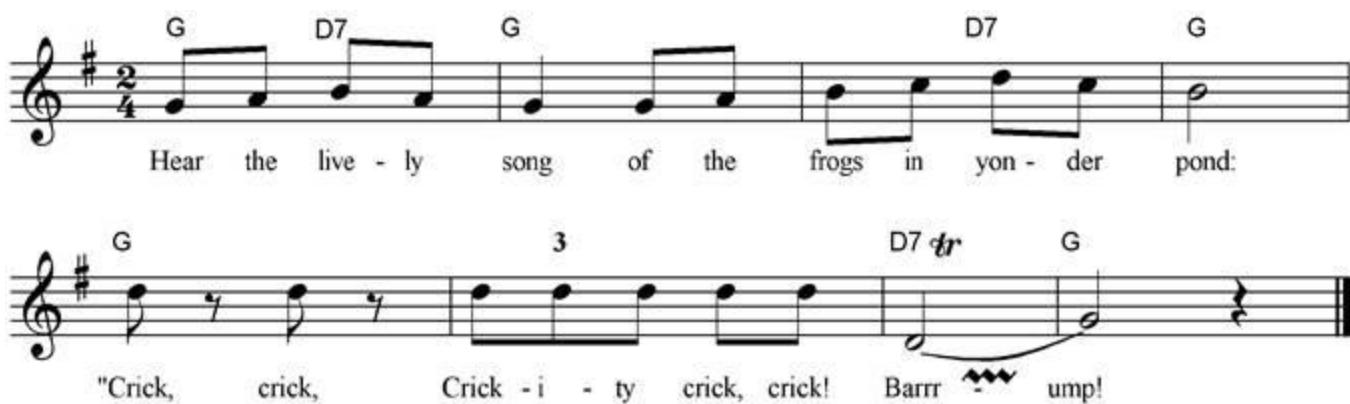

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

A round and action play for the tadpole season.

Crouch on the floor like a frog. At the "Barrump", everyone leaps in the air and claps their hands over their heads. Once everyone is familiar with the words and actions, singers are split into small groups. Each group starts singing at slightly different times and repeating the song 'til everyone tires! Aim for an effect of a pondful of frogs croaking in spring!

It will sound even better accompanied by a guiro.
