

The Leprechaun; or Fairy Shoemaker

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

The song below are the words of the leprechaun from a poem by William Allingham; find the full poem here.

Music by Dany Rosevear.

Tip - tap, rip - rap, Tick - a - tack - too! Scarlet lea - ther, sewn to - geth - er,

This will make a shoe. Left, right, pull it tight, sum - mer days are warm, Un - der - ground in Win - ter, Laugh - ing at the storm!

Tip-tap, rip-rap, Tick-a-tack-too!
Scarlet leather, sewn together,
This will make a shoe.
Left, right, pull it tight;
Summer days are warm;
Underground in Winter.
Laughing at the storm!

Big boots a-hunting, Sandals in the hall,
White for a wedding-feast.
Pink for a ball.
This way, that way.
So we make a shoe;
Getting rich every stitch,
Tick-a-tack-too!

Rip-rap, tip-tap, Tick-a-tack-too!
(A grasshopper on my cap!
Away the moth flew!)
Buskins for a Fairy Prince,
Brogues for his son, —
Pay me well, pay me well.
When the job is done!
