

Tippety, tippety tin

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

An old West Somerset rhyme once recited in homes locally after eating pancakes. A little research suggests this song was known more widely in the West country including Cornwall and Exmoor in Devon with associated rituals.

Tippety, tippety
Tippety, tippety tin,
Give me a pancake
And I will come in.

Tippety, tippety
Tippety, tippety toe,
Give me a pancake
And then I will go.
