

Chip, chip my little horse

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

A simple bouncing rhyme that can be sung as 'hup, hup', 'up, up', 'chock, chock' and others; Find more versions at: <http://mudcat.org/thread.cfm?threadid=59425>.

This one comes from the film 'The boy with green hair' 1948: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=P6XyB7WZXgg>

Bounce young child on your knee or foot to the rhythm of this song.

6/8 time signature, treble clef, key of C.

Chords: C, G7, C, F, C, G7, C.

Lyrics:

Chip, chip, my lit - tle horse, — Chip, chip, a - gain, sir:
How ma - ny miles to Dub - lin town? Four score and ten, sir.
Chip, chip, my lit - tle horse, — Chip, chip, a - gain, sir:
Can I get there by can - dle - light? You can and back a - gain, sir!

Chip, chip, my little horse,
Chip, chip, again, sir:
How many miles to Dublin town?
Four score and ten, sir.

Chip, chip, my little horse,
Chip, chip, again, sir:
Can I get there by candlelight?
You can and back again, sir!