

When you see a daffodil

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

A poem by Aileen Fisher

One of my favourite poems (and poets!) for a young child at this time of year. Make sure you have some growing daffodil bulbs in the classroom. Or look out for them on a Spring walk.

When you see a daffodil
And know it's spring,
All the songs inside of you
Begin to sing.
