1. Draw smile and a circle. 2. Wiggle fingers. 3. Point to eyes and make fingers twinkle. 4. Frown, make a shooing movement with hands, smile.

The musical notation consists of two staves of music. The top staff is in F major and 6/8 time. It includes lyrics: 'A smile is like the sun - shine; It bright - ens up the day.' The bottom staff continues the melody in F major, with lyrics: 'gives the eye a twin - kle And chas - es frowns a - way.' Chords indicated above the staff are F, B♭, C7, and F.

A smile is like the sunshine;
It brightens up the day.
It gives the eye a twinkle
And chases frowns away.
