

Caterpillar! Caterpillar!

<https://rivzrofsong.uk/>

A hand play for Spring.

A song written by Homer H. Harbour from '140 Folk Songs' and published in 1922 to the music from a Russian folk song.

1st verse: 1.- 4. Wiggle finger up arm. 5. Shake finger. 6. Open and close thumb and forefinger then place them round eyes. 7. As before. 8. Cross hands at wrists and fly.

2nd verse: 1.- 2. Wiggle finger and hide under hand. 3.- 4. Wiggle finger, wind it and put hands together. 5. Place hands to cheek. 6. Cross hands and flap. 7. As before. 8. Cross hands and flap up and away.

Cat - er - pil - lar! Cat - er - pil - lar! You are such a pret - ty sight.
Cat - er - pil - lar! Cat - er - pil - lar! Green and yel - low, black and white.

Take care what you do, Rob - ins are a - watch - ing you,

Take care what you do, Spar - rows are a - chas - ing you!

Caterpillar! Caterpillar!
You are such a pretty sight.
Caterpillar! Caterpillar!
Green and yellow, black and white.
Take care what you do,
Robins are a-watching you;
Take care what you do,
Sparrows are a-chasing you!

Caterpillar! Caterpillar!
Creep away and hide you soon.
Caterpillar! Caterpillar!
Spin yourself a warm cocoon.
Dark and silent lie,
Till you are a butterfly.
Dark and silent lie,
Till you are a butterfly.

