

Little chickens on the ground

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

A Spring and number hand play.

Words adapted and set to music by Dany Rosevear.

Ball hands with thumb and finger out for beaks. Tap 'beaks' on table.

Flap elbows. Place hands downwards against chest with fingers curled in. Sit one hand on the 'nest' of the other. Throw out hands. Count fingers on each hand.

Little chickens on the ground, Pecking at the corn they found; While Mother Hen tucks up her legs And gently sits up - on her eggs.

How many eggs does Mother hide? One, two, three, four, five!

Little chickens on the ground,
Pecking at the corn they found;
While Mother Hen tucks up her legs
And gently sits upon her eggs.
How many eggs does Mother hide?
One, two, three, four, five!
One, two, three, four, five!
