

Lulabelle

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

Beware the perils of the bath tub; a crazy song that is great fun to sing with children. With younger children you might need to explain the impossibility of disappearing down the plughole; some have very vivid imaginations!

Extend arm and make hand imitate a giraffe's head peering haughtily from side to side for 'neck of a giraffe' etc. Raise hands to face and speak in a high distressed voice for the spoken words.

Lyrics:

- "Lu - la - belle where are you go - ing?" "Up - stairs, to take a bath."
- Lu - la - belle with legs like tooth - picks and a neck like a gi - raffe - a - raffe - a - raffe - a - raf - fa. Lu - la - belle climbed in the bath - tub,
- Lu - la - belle pulled out the plug. "OH MY
- GOOD - NESS! OH MY SOUL! THERE GOES LU - LA - BELLE DOWN THE HOLE!"
- 'Lu - la - belle where are you go - ing?' GLUB! GLUB! GLUB!

"Lulabelle where are you going?"

"Upstairs, to take a bath."

Lulabelle with legs like tooth picks,

And a neck like a giraffe-a-raffe-a-raffe-a-raffa.

Lulabelle climbed in the bathtub,

Lulabelle pulled out the plug.

"OH MY GOODNESS, OH MY SOUL,

THERE GOES LULABELLE DOWN

THE HOLE!

Lulabelle where are you going?"

GLUB, GLUB, GLUB!
