A nursery rhyme. Choose different colours each time.

Playing outdoors in all weathers is the best place to be as long as you wear suitable clothing. There are so many different words for rain footwear, choose the most familiar one for your neighbourhood.

Set to music and second verse by Dany Rosevear.

Stamp around the room or keep to the beat with fists on knees.

I wear my yel - low rain - coat To cov - er up my clothes And wear my bright blue wel - lies To cov - er up my toes. I stamp in ev - 'ry pud - dle And do it once a - gain, Un - til the sun comes out to play And dries up all the rain.

I wear my yellow raincoat
To cover up my clothes
And wear my bright blue wellies
To cover up my toes

I stamp in every puddle
And do it once again;
Until the sun comes out to play
And dries up all the rain!
