

Says the bee

Get ready for some buzzy business. Bees are busy all through the sunshine season. Just love this lazy Spring into summer tune, song by Malvina Reynolds, from 'Tweedles and foodles for young noodles' published 1961. The buzzy refrain has been added by Dany Rosevear. It would work well with a percussion accompaniment, washboard, kazoo, scraper for example. In her intro Malvina encourages us to add our own ideas to her songs, such a generous spirit!

Musical score for the song 'Says the Bee'. The score is written in G major and 4/4 time. It consists of four staves of music with lyrics underneath. The lyrics are: 'Come with me, says the bee, In - to the daf - fo - dil. All our house has yel - low, yel - low, walls And ho - ney on the sill. Buzz, buzz, buz - zy buzz, buzz, Buz - zy buzz buzz, buzz, buzz! Buzz, buzz, buzz, buzz, buz - zy, buz - zy buzz, Buzz, buzz, buz - zy buzz, buzz!' The chords G, E♭, D7, and G are indicated above the notes.

Come with me, says the bee,
Come with me, says the bee,
Into the daffodil.
All our house has yellow, yellow walls
And honey on the sill.

Chorus: Buzz, buzz, buzzy buzz, buzz,
Buzzy buzz, buzz, buzz, buzz!
Buzz, buzz, buzz, buzz, buzzy, buzzy, buzz,
Buzz, buzz, buzzy buzz, buzz!

Come with me, says the bee,
Into the open rose.
Perfume curtains hanging all around
And pollen on your toes.

Come with me, says the bee,
Into the lily flower.
Sun in your window every sunny day
Umbrella for a shower.
