

She sailed away

*At the end of this song there will be a smile to be found on every face.
With hands together make a sailing motion. Make arms open and close.
Thumbs and forefingers make binoculars round eyes. Stroke arm with hand.
Make a riding motion back and forth. Wink or with thumb and forefinger.
Wave. Make upward smile with forefingers. Wag finger from side to side.

The musical score is written on four staves in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The melody is simple and repetitive, with lyrics written below the notes. Chord symbols (A, B7, E) are placed above the staff to indicate accompaniment. The lyrics are: 'She sailed a-way on a love-ly sum-mer's day, On the back of a croc-o-dile, 'You see,' says she, 'He's as tame as tame can be, And I'll ride him up the Nile.' The croc winked an eye, And the la-dy waved good-bye, Wear-ing a sun-ny smile. At the end of the ride, The la-dy was in-side, And the smile was on the croc-o-dile!'

She sailed away on a lovely summer's day,
On the back of a crocodile,
'You see', says she,
'He's as tame as tame can be,
And I'll ride him up the Nile.'
The croc winked an eye,
As the lady waved goodbye,
Wearing a sunny smile.
At the end of the ride,
The lady was inside,
And the smile was on the crocodile!
