

The lambs in the green fields

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

This lovely Irish air comes from Bill Meek's 'Moon penny'; I have added some chords. It is also known as 'The false bride' and below is just the chorus as it is a mournful ballad that tells of a wedding with a tragic ending. Find out the whole story at:

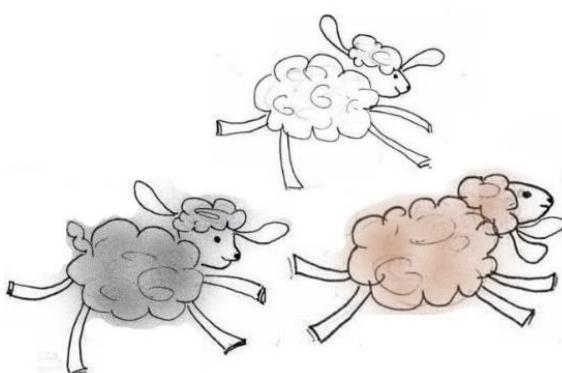

<http://mudcat.org/thread.cfm?threadid=123300>

The musical notation is in 6/8 time, treble clef, and key of D major. It consists of three staves of music with lyrics underneath. The chords indicated are D, Bm, A7, and G.

The lyrics are:

The lambs on the green fields they sport as they play, And lots of straw-ber-ries grow a-round the salt sea, And lots of straw-ber-ries grow round the salt sea, And many's the ship sails the o-cean.

The lambs in the green fields they sport as they play,
And lots of strawberries grow around the salt sea,
And lots of strawberries grow round the salt sea,
And many's the ship sails the ocean.