Saint George and the dragon 🔊

*St George's Day is celebrated throughout England on 23rd April.
We know very little about his life as a Roman soldier and Christian but many have heard the English legend of his valour and bravery saving the princess from the jaws and fire of the dragon; an inspirational tale of right over might or light over darkness.
A song for today's world. Words and music by Dany Rosevear*

Saint George they say was bold and brave,
He fought the dragon and was not afraid.
He saved the princess and the people of the town,
They clapped and cheered as they danced around.

If truth be told those tales of old
Are just great stories for us to hold,
But hearts of gold with courage still ride
To fight for justice not to win the prize.

And together we can be both bold and brave,
We can fight false dragons in so many ways.
With one voice we'll speak for those in need,
Bring hope, bring joy, bring harmony.

Stand up, stand up when we know it's good and right,
Against the dragon's fire and might,
Stand up, stand up for a bright new day,
Pave a path with pearls of love to light the way.
