

As one we can fly

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

In unity the world is a place for us to be happy and thrive. We strive to do our best and sometimes we fail. But we need each other for support and to survive; a fragmented, divided earth family will get us nowhere. But whatever we do the natural world and the skies above are still there for us to love and appreciate and to calm and steady us in times of need. Words and music by Dany Rosevear.

We sail so high, we fail, we rise,
We laugh and cry, we sing and sigh.
And all the while in hope we try;
We walk with the many
But as one, as one we can fly.

*Chorus: Cool breezes gently flowed,
Soft waves lapped to and fro,
Mmm, mmm, mmm, mmm, mmm, mmm.
The pale moon shone bright that night,
A thousand stars gave out their light,
And Mother Earth smiled in wonder as we flew!
And Mother Earth smiled in wonder as we flew!*

We circle round, we're lost, we're found,
We twist and turn, we love and learn.
We listen to the good and wise;
We walk with the many
But as one, as one we can fly. Chorus
