... If we could consider each other...

This song written by Hy Zaret and with music by Lou Singer is a timely reminder of our obligations and need to live in unity and peace with our fellow earth dwellers. It was made popular by Pete Seeger.

The musical score is written in 3/4 time and consists of six staves. The lyrics are: "If we could con-sid - er each o - ther, Our neigh - bour, a friend or a bro - ther, It could be a won - der - ful, won - der - ful world, It could be a won - der - ful world, Uh - huh, It could be a won - der - ful world, If each lit - tle kid could have fresh milk each day, If each one who worked had e - nough time to play, If each home - less soul had a good place to stay, It could be a won - der - ful world, Uh - huh, It could be a won - der - ful world,". The chords are: C, G7, C, C, F, G, C, G7, C, C, G7, C, G7, C.

If we could consider each other,
Our neighbour, a friend, or a brother,
It could be a wonderful, wonderful world,
It could be a wonderful world, Uh-huh,
It could be a wonderful world.

If each little kid could have fresh milk each day,
If each working man had enough time to play,
If each homeless soul had a good place to stay,
It could be a wonderful world, Uh-huh,
It could be a wonderful world.

If we could consider each other,
A neighbour, a friend, or a brother,
It could be a wonderful, wonderful world,
It could be a wonderful world, Uh-huh,
It could be a wonderful world.

If there were no poor and the rich were content,
If strangers were welcome wherever they went,
If each of us knew what true brotherhood meant,
It could be a wonderful world, Uh-huh,
It could be a wonderful world.

If we could consider each other,
A neighbour, a friend, or a brother,
It could be a wonderful, wonderful world,
It could be a wonderful world, Uh-huh,
It could be a wonderful world.
