

The fairies' wash day

<https://riverofsong.uk/>

One of Maud Burnham's wonderful hand plays.

Tune by Dany Rosevear.

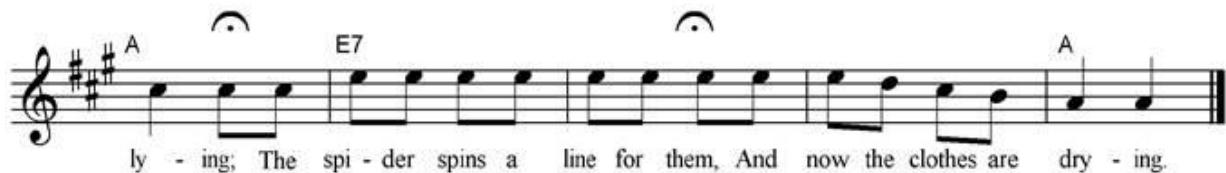

1. Cup hands. 2. Show palms and rub together. 3. With hands face down, spread apart. 4. Wiggle fingers of one hand then roll hands to make spinning movement. 5. Stretch an imaginary string. 6. Thumb up.

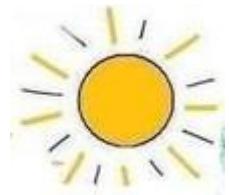

A E7 A E7 A E7
This is the fair - ies' wash day with a - corn cups for tubs, And ti - ny leaves for

E7 A E7 A E7
wash boards, Each fair - y rubs and rubs. The fair - y sheets so white and fine Up - on the grass are

A E7 A
ly - ing; The spi - der spins a line for them, And now the clothes are dry - ing.

This is the fairies' wash day
With acorn cups for tubs,
And tiny leaves for washboards,
Each fairy rubs and rubs.
The fairy sheets so white and fine
Upon the grass are lying;
The spider spins a line for them,
And now the clothes are drying.

